

Organic Sprouted Garbanzo Beans

Garbanzos (also known as chickpeas) are high in fiber, protein, vitamin K, folate, iron, zinc making it a great tasting addition to any diet.

We have pre-soaked them so they can be eaten straight out of the package, in salads and bowls, added to stews and soups, used for hummus, or incorporated anywhere you use garbanzos. Unlike canned beans, they are NOT mushy or contain additives.
